TWISTER + ROCKY CREEK DOUBLE FUN CANYON ADVENTURE ACTIVITY

Meet guides & register in Katoomba to collect canyon adventure gear. Transfer via mini bus to Newnes Plateau, Wollemi National Park home of the protected wild Jurassic Wollemi Pine, near the famous Glow Worm Tunnel. Explanation of canyon activities & Blue Mountains environments.

Stage 1: 30min steep bushwalk off the plateau into Sheep Dip Canyon, guarded by rocky pagodas takes you into the cool surrounds of Twister Canyon. Aptly named as it winds and twists toward Rocky Creek canyon adventure. After fitting into wetsuits and canyon gear, enjoy 8 fun sequential water jumps, slippery dips and pools to play in. Adventure in full gear; Jump, Wade and Rock-Scramble along the canyon floor, amidst overhanging ferns, yabbies, water dragons and if lucky, lyre birds.

Stage 2: Test your balance on the log crossing then duck, down climb and weave into Rocky Creek's deep chasm and mysterious pools. Reflecting ethereal shafts of light off the sandstone water polished canyon walls. Swim (medium distances up to 100m) through the canyon channel to reach a wide rock platform slide before encountering more tunnel swims.

A sunny spot for a filling healthy lunch is a rewarding time to relax & explore a remote Blue Mountains rainforest. Return trip retraces Rocky Creek Canyon or continue downstream to climb natural pass onto ungraded walking track. Return drive over Darling Causeway incredible views of Grose Valley & Mt Banks. Then Katoomba to enjoy celebratory drinks.
