"Thank you personally for the Chubb Amazing Race event. The feedback on the event was very positive, the learnings were discussed widely among our team after the event, and it certainly contributed to the overall camaraderie of the team. Thanks for your efforts, and those of your team in making it so special for us". Regards, Simon Willshire Group HR Director CHUBB Australasia

When you say 'team building event' to most staff they yawn and try to guess...."is it ...?" "do I have to fall back and hope to be caught by the other staff?". You guys offer new age events that appeal to masses.
